September is Hunger Action Month and for the fifth year in a row, the Maryland Department of Transportation (MDOT) will work with the Maryland Food Bank to collect nonperishable food items. Through the Operation Orange Food Drive, MDOT business units – Secretary of Transportation’s Office, Maryland Transit Administration (MDOT MTA), Maryland Port Administration (MDOT MPA), Maryland Transportation Authority (MDTA), Maryland Aviation Administration (MDOT MAA), Motor Vehicle Administration (MDOT MVA) and State Highway Administration (MDOT SHA) - are collecting food from employees and customers at more than 100 locations. MDOT SHA Administrator Greg Slater is serving as chairman of Operation Orange. Currently, there are more than 682,000 Marylanders in need of food, 220,010 of which are children.
